Remind Them of No One.

And Everyone Will Remember You.

SIGNATURE KEYNOTE

Remind Them of No One:

Revealing Your Cheat Codes to Success

What if the very things you've overlooked about yourself are the things that could take you further than you ever imagined?

Through humor, personal stories, and real-world business experience, Tena helps audiences recognize their Cheat Codes: the strengths, experiences, perspectives, and natural abilities that make them unlike anyone else.

From childhood memories of Nintendo to the surprising business lesson hiding in black licorice, Tena brings a fresh perspective to the stage, helping women recognize what makes them memorable and how to put it to work.

AUDIENCE TAKEAWAYS

Attendees will:

01 Recognize strengths and advantages they may have overlooked

02 Understand how their individuality helps them stand out

03 Think more intentionally about the relationships influencing their growth

04 Leave with practical ideas they can apply to business and life

ABOUT TENA

Tena Pettis is an author, entrepreneur, business coach, and keynote speaker who has spent much of her career building businesses and helping women grow theirs.

After leaving her corporate job to start her first business, she went on to build multiple ventures, including a seven-figure business. Today, she's the author of Remind Them of No One and founder of FLOW, where she works closely with women growing their businesses.

Known for her humor, storytelling, direct approach, and ability to connect with an audience, Tena brings both encouragement and practical business experience to the stage.
